Let us pray together

For feeding our souls, we thank you.

For nourishing our bodies, we thank you.

For eating with us, we thank you.

For the times we're rejected your food, we are sorry.

For the invitations to eat with you we have turned down, we are sorry.

Amen

Today's Gospel Reading: John 6:24-35

Time to Reflect

I wonder what the last thing you ate was? Was it 'good' or 'bad', was it 'healthy' or 'unhealthy'? It's strange, I think, how we give the food we eat a moral weighting such that for some of us our food choices can become a difficult thing; even worse, the food we eat can become a tool of control for others who make judgements of us and often try to curb our behaviours based upon our desire to eat and the food we choose to eat.

Jesus often spent time sharing in acts of eating with others; eating is an important feature in the ways in which we understand and know God and the people of God. Eating matters.

What foods or meals have you shared which have also nourished you spiritually?

In what ways do you share in the 'food that endures eternal life'?

Take a time to sit quietly

A time of prayer

For the hungry in our world, in our churches and in our communities, we pray... may they hunger no more.

For those who hold the power to feed others... may they be grace-filled.

For those who struggle with food and eating, in our world, in our churches and in our communities, we pray... may they struggle no more.

For those who sit at a table of sickness, loneliness, grief or fear, we pray... may they know your nourishing love.

Feed and nourish us all.

Amen.

Jesus, bread of life
Manna from heaven
Broken for the world
Offered up for every man

Feast of angels becomes food for the weary
And hungry hearts are filled
When you open up your hand
When you open up your hand

O, Lord, come fill us with your love
This table laid for us

There is more than enough
Jesus, bread of life

Sister, take what you need
Anything I own
There is no famine here
Jesus' love will multiply

Brother, what's mine is yours
You are not alone
There is no shortage here
Jesus' love satisfies
Jesus' love satisfies

O, Lord, come fill us with your love
This table laid for us
There is more than enough
Jesus, bread of life

A prayer of blessing

May you know the God who offers you nourishment; May you share in the food that brings you life; May you know the welcome of the table of God; and may you know the blessing of God, the Father, the Son & the Holy Spirit, be with us, those we love and those we ought to love.

This day and always. Amen.

Psalm 78:23-29

- ²³ Yet he commanded the skies above,
and opened the doors of heaven;
²⁴ he rained down on them manna to eat,
and gave them the grain of heaven.
²⁵ Mortals ate of the bread of angels;
he sent them food in abundance.
²⁶ He caused the east wind to blow in the heavens,
and by his power he led out the south wind;
²⁷ he rained flesh upon them like dust,
winged birds like the sand of the seas;
²⁸ he let them fall within their camp,
all around their dwellings.
²⁹ And they ate and were well filled,
for he gave them what they craved.

John 6: 24-35

²⁴So when the crowd saw that neither Jesus nor his disciples were there, they themselves got into the boats and went to Capernaum looking for Jesus.

25 When they found him on the other side of the lake, they said to him, 'Rabbi, when did you come here?' ²⁶Jesus answered them, 'Very truly, I tell you, you are looking for me, not because you saw signs, but because you ate your fill of the loaves. ²⁷Do not work for the food that perishes, but for the food that endures for eternal life, which the Son of Man will give you. For it is on him that God the Father has set his seal.' ²⁸Then they said to him, 'What must we do to perform the works of God?' ²⁹Jesus answered them, 'This is the work of God, that you believe in him whom he has sent.' ³⁰So they said to him, 'What sign are you going to give us then, so that we may see it and believe you? What work are you performing? ³¹Our ancestors ate the manna in the wilderness; as it is written, "He gave them bread from heaven to eat." ' ³²Then Jesus said to them, 'Very truly, I tell you, it was not Moses who gave you the bread from heaven, but it is my Father who gives you the true bread from heaven. ³³For the bread of God is that which comes down from heaven and gives life to the world.' ³⁴They said to him, 'Sir, give us this bread always.'

35 Jesus said to them, 'I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never be hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty.'
